

I believe in citizens right to be free from harassing phone calls from businesses. Just because I do business with a company does not mean I want them to call me at home to try to sell me something. The proposed weakening of the regulations on the telephone privacy laws for this state is unfair to all citizens.